

Frozen backbones transfer to unseen venues; the clock rule does not

One point per held-out venue; the vertical line is each model's mean across folds. Five of seven venues contribute 12-30 frames, so the spread matters more than the mean.

